The Customer Agreement contains important information related to how we will administer the credit card program. Plus, any other disclosures or notices that are referenced or issued are part of this Agreement. Your Billing Rights summarizes certain rights provided to you by law that are related to billing on your Card account.

THIS AGREEMENT REQUIRES CLAIMS TO BE ARBITRATED AND FORBIDS CLASS ACTIONS UNLESS YOU (1) ARE SUBJECT TO THE PROTECTIONS OF THE MILITARY LENDING ACT OR (2) EXERCISE YOUR RIGHT TO REJECT ARBITRATION AS PROVIDED IN THE ARBITRATION PROVISION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

How We Will Calculate Your Balance: We use a method called Daily Balance (including new purchases). See the Customer Agreement for details.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in Your Billing Rights Section of the Customer Agreement.

How Variable Interest Rates Are Determined: Your interest rate is a variable rate and is determined by a combination of the Prime Rate (which may vary) added to a margin (which does not change). Because the Prime Rate may vary, your variable interest rate will go up or down if the Prime Rate changes.

Index and When It Is Determined: The Index used to determine your variable APRs is the U.S. Prime Rate shown on the US Prime Rate Website <https://www.fedprimerate.com>, published on the date of account opening. If the Prime Rate has changed, the new rates will take effect on the first day of the first Billing Cycle that starts after the account opening date. Any increase in the Prime Rate may increase your interest charges and your Minimum Payment due. Your daily periodic rate for Purchases is 0.055% to 0.089%. The daily period rate, once calculated, will not exceed 0.089%.

APR for Purchases: To determine the variable APR, we add a margin of 11.74% to 23.74% to the Index (Prime Rate) based on your creditworthiness at the time you open the account.

CUSTOMER AGREEMENT

Welcome to the AppCard Credit Card, Issued by TAB Bank

Thank you for opening a credit card account with us. This Customer Agreement (this “Agreement”) contains the terms for your Card.

Definitions.

The following definitions list below will apply to this Agreement:

Account means your AppCard Credit Card Account.

Annual Percentage Rate, or APR, is the percentage you are charged annually for the debt that you accrue.

Authorized User or Additional Cardholder refers to anyone whom you permit to use your Account, including any Cards associated with your Account. You’ll need to provide us with their full name, email address, and date of birth. You’ll need your Authorized User’s consent to share their information with us.

Billing Cycle means a period of time that might vary in length but is approximately 30 days. The specific period of time is described on each Statement. However, you will have a Billing Cycle even if a Statement is not required.

We will often specify a Billing Cycle by the month in which its closing date occurs as provided on the Statement. For example, a “March Billing Cycle” will have a closing date in March. We may also refer to a Billing Cycle as a “Billing Period.” If your Account balance has charged off, we may switch to quarterly Billing Cycles to your Account.

Business Day means any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which banking institutions in Ogden, Utah are authorized or obligated by law to be closed.

Card means any physical, digital, or virtual Card associated with your Account, which includes all renewals and substitutions. It also means any other access device for your Account we give you that allows you to obtain credit.

Credit means an accounting entry that decreases a liability; in this case, your outstanding balance on your Account.

Credit Limit means the amount of credit extended to you.

Disclosure means any Account information we provide to you that is required by the federal Truth in Lending Act and Regulation Z. These include your application and solicitation disclosures, Account opening disclosures, subsequent disclosures, Statements, and change in terms notices.

Fees means conditional charges imposed on your Account that are not based on the Annual Percentage Rates.

Interest Charges means any charges to your Account based on the application of Annual Percentage Rates.

Item means a check, draft, money order, other negotiable instrument or any images of such items that you use to pay your Account.

Mobile App means the mobile software application downloaded by a user to a mobile device that allows access to the Card and Account servicing.

Payment Card Network means Visa Incorporated, or any other network provider displayed on the Card.

Statement means a document or information we provide to you showing Account information including, among other things, transactions made to your Account during a Billing Cycle. We might also refer to your Statement as a “Periodic Statement” or a “Billing Statement.”

We, us, our, TAB Bank means Transportation Alliance Bank, Inc. doing business as TAB Bank, and its agents, authorized representatives, successors, and assignees. TAB Bank is the creditor and issuer of the AppCard Credit Card.

Web App means the web software application accessed via an internet browser on a desktop computer or mobile device that allows access to the Card and Account servicing.

You, your, and yourself mean each applicant for the Account; any person responsible for paying the Account; and anyone you authorize to use, access or service the Account.

Things You Should Know About This Card

Interest Charges

Subject to any grace period for new Purchases, Interest Charges are imposed from the time a Purchase or Cash Advance is posted to your Account until it is paid in full.

How Is the Interest Charge Determined?

Interest charges accrue from the 1) date of the transaction, 2) date the transaction is processed or 3) first day of the billing period. Interest accrues daily on every unpaid amount until it is paid in full. Any interest that has accrued during a billing period will post to your Account at the end of the billing period and will appear on your next Statement. This means you may owe Interest Charges even if you pay the entire “New Balance” one month, but did not do so the previous month. For example, even if a customer pays their balance in full on a February 26th due date, interest would continue to accrue on the balance from February 2nd (the start of the Billing Cycle) through February 26th, and will appear on their next Statement. Once you start accruing Interest Charges, you generally must pay your New Balance in full for two consecutive Billing Cycles before Interest Charges stop being posted to your Statement. However, we reserve the right to not assess Interest Charges.

How Do You Calculate the Interest Charge?

We use the Daily Balance Method (including current transactions) to calculate the Interest Charges for each Billing Cycle. We figure the Interest Charges by multiplying the “Daily Balance” for each balance type by the respective Daily Periodic Rate that applies to that balance. We calculate this each day of the Billing Cycle and the sum results in the total Interest Charges for that balance for the Billing Cycle. The minimum interest charge is $1.00 for each Billing Cycle during which an Interest Charge is imposed.

How is the Daily Balance calculated?

We first calculate the “Daily Balance” each day as follows: (1) we take the previous day’s Purchase balance (which may include unpaid interest and Fees) and Cash Advance balance (which may include unpaid interest), (2) add new Purchases (including Fees and other charges) to the balance, (3) add any interest accrued on the previous day to the balance (this results in daily compounding of interest) and (4) subtract from the balance as of the date posted to your Account any payments, Credits or any other adjustments to your Account. If a Daily Balance is negative, we treat it as zero.

How Can I Avoid Paying Interest Charges?

If you pay your full statement balance by the due date each month, we will not charge interest on any new transactions that post to the purchase balance. If you have been paying your account in full without interest charges but fail to pay your next statement balance in full, we will charge interest on the unpaid balance. For cash advances and balance transfers, we will start charging interest on the transaction date.

How is your Variable APR Calculated?

- Your variable Annual Percentage Rate (APR) is calculated by adding a margin to the Prime Rate.
- We use the Prime Rate from the rates section of the Wall Street Journal, published two Business Days before the end of the Billing Cycle.

Your Daily Periodic Rate (DPR) is $1/365$ of the corresponding APR.

If the Wall Street Journal does not publish a rate on that day, we will use the Prime Rate for the previous Business Day. If the Wall Street Journal is no longer published, we may use the Prime Rate from any other newspaper. Or, we may choose to use a different, similar published rate.

If the Prime Rate increases, Variable APRs will increase. In that case, you may pay more interest and may have a higher payment or balance due. When the Prime Rate changes, the resulting changes to Variable APRs will be reflected on your next Billing Cycle statement.

Can You Change My Account Terms?

Although we don't plan to, we can change some terms of your account as permitted by law. If we do, we will send you notice before doing so, where applicable by regulation. Please review this Cardholder Agreement in full to be sure you understand the current terms for your Card.

Your APR, daily periodic rate, and interest charges will change if the Prime Rate changes.

Account Information.

We need information about you to manage your Account. The information we need may include:

- your legal name;
- a valid U.S. mailing address and residential address (if different);
- your date of birth;
- your Social Security Number, Passport Number, and/or other government identification number, if available;
- your telephone number(s);
- your employment, income, and asset information;
- your educational history and information;

You must tell us when any of this information changes. Please update your address in the manner provided on your Statement. You may also update some of this information by logging onto your Account on the Web App, via the Mobile App or by calling one of our representatives at the telephone number provided on your Statement or on the back of your Card. We may require you to provide additional documents that are acceptable to us to verify this information or any changes to this information. We retain the right to restrict or close your Account if your information cannot be verified or if you do not provide additional information as requested.

You also give us permission to verify the information you provide to us with third parties, including, without limitation, LexisNexis (or similar), United States Department of Homeland Security, and the United States Department of the Treasury.

Credit Limit.

When you open your Account, you will receive your credit limit. Your credit limit will also appear on your Statements. We might also refer to your credit limit as your credit line.

You are responsible for keeping track of your Account balances and your available credit. Do not allow your Account to go over any credit limit, as the transaction could be declined. We may still honor transactions above your credit limit, but our honoring of these transactions will not increase your credit limit. In our sole discretion, we may also increase, decrease, restrict, or cancel your credit limit at any time. We will notify you of any change in your credit limit. This change will not affect your obligation to pay us.

Using Your Account.

You promise to follow the terms of this Agreement as long as your Account remains open or has an outstanding balance. Please sign the Card immediately when you receive it. The Card is valid during the dates provided on the front of the Card. The Card is our property, and you will return it to us or destroy it if we ask. You will take reasonable steps to prevent the unauthorized use of your Card and Account.

The Card can be used to make online purchases anywhere Visa is accepted.

We are not responsible if anyone refuses to accept your Card for any reason. Also, we may reject any transaction for any reason.

You must not use, or try to use, the Card for any Internet gambling transactions or transactions that are illegal or not permitted by us. You will still be responsible for such transactions if you do. In addition, these transactions will be subject to this Agreement, and you might have to reimburse the Payment Card Network and us for all damages and expenses.

From time to time, due to circumstances beyond our control (such as system failures, fires, floods, natural disasters, or other unpredictable events) our services might be unavailable. When this happens, you might be unable to use your Card or obtain information about your Account. We will not be responsible or liable for any losses that you may incur if/when our services are unavailable due to factors beyond our control.

Your Promise to Pay.

You promise to pay us all amounts due on your Account. This includes amounts where you did not sign a purchase slip or other documents for the transaction. If you use your Card number without presenting your actual Card (including without limitation mail, telephone, or internet purchases), this will be treated the same way as if you used the Card in person. If you let someone else use your Card, you are responsible for all transactions that person makes. Your promise to pay us will apply to your estate if you die.

Statements.

We will send you one Statement for all Cards on your Account at the end of each Billing Cycle when your Account has a debit or credit balance, or if we have charged any Interest Charges to your Account. Your Statement will show all transactions billed to your Account during the Billing Cycle along with other important Account information.

Disputed Transactions.

You must inspect each Statement you receive and tell us about any errors or questions you have as described in the “Billing Rights Summary” part of your Statement and Your Billing Rights. If you do not notify us as provided in those billing rights disclosures, we may assume that all information in the Statement is correct.

If you dispute a transaction made by you or someone else on your Account, and we later credit your Account for all or part of the disputed amount, you give us all of your rights against that other person. You also will:

- give us any merchandise or other purchases you received in connection with the disputed amount if we ask;
- not pursue any claim or reimbursement from the merchant and that other person; and
- help us pursue and get reimbursement from the merchant and that other person.

Your help includes giving us documents that we ask for and that are acceptable to us.

Interest Charges and Fees.

We will charge Interest and Fees to your Account as disclosed to you in Summary of Credit Terms and other Disclosures. The Interest and Fees charge will be shown on your Statements. In general, Interest Charges begin to accrue from the day a transaction occurs. However, we will not charge you interest on any new balances posted to your Account provided you have paid your previous balance in full by the due date.

We will treat the following Fees as purchase transactions unless otherwise specified below. These Fees apply to your Account only if they are provided in your Summary of Credit Terms and other Disclosures. We may increase your Interest Charges and Fees as described in the Changes to Your Agreement section.

Late Payment Fee. We may charge you this Fee if we do not receive your payment in time for us to credit it by the due date shown on your Statement.

Overlimit Fee. You will not have a fee for going over your credit limit, but your credit score may be adversely affected and the transaction may be declined, depending on the amount of the overage.

Returned Payment Fee. We may charge you this Fee each time any payment you make to us is not paid by your financial institution for any reason, even if that institution later pays it.

Foreign Transaction Fee. We may charge you this Fee each time you use your Card at a foreign ATM or merchant located outside of the United States or the payment is made in a currency other than U.S. dollars.

Transactions Made in Foreign Currencies: If you make a transaction in a foreign currency, the Payment Card Network will convert it into a U.S. dollar amount. The Payment Card Network will use its own currency conversion procedures. The conversion rate in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date that appears on your Statement. We do not adjust the currency exchange rate fees.

No Warranties.

Except as otherwise provided in Your Billing Rights or the “Billing Rights Summary” part of your Statements, we are not responsible for any claim you might have regarding the purchases of goods or services made with your Card.

Merchant Refunds.

If you are entitled to a refund for goods or services purchased with your Card, you will accept these refunds as credits to your Account. We do not control when a merchant sends us your refund. We will also have a reasonable amount of time after we receive your refund to process it and credit your Account.

Minimum Payment.

Your Statement will provide instructions for making payments, including the amounts due and the due date for receiving your payment. If applicable, your Statement will also include a minimum payment due. To avoid a Late Payment Fee, you must pay us at least this minimum payment due by the due date provided in the Statement. Your minimum payment amount will equal the greater of $40 (or your full balance if it's less than $40) or 4% of your ending balance for the Statement, plus the total amount by which you have exceeded your credit limit (if applicable). In addition to the minimum payment amount, the minimum payment due may also include other amounts that you owe under this Agreement, such as past due amounts. In addition to the minimum payment due, you may pay all or part of the total balance on your Account. However, you must still pay at least the minimum payment due each month, even if you paid greater than the minimum on the previous Statement. We will continue to charge Interest Charges during Billing Cycles when you carry a balance regardless of whether your Statement includes a minimum payment that is due. If your Account is 180 days past due, part of a bankruptcy proceeding or otherwise charges off, the entire balance is immediately due and payable.

Making Payments.

Your payments must be paid in U.S. dollars from a U.S. deposit account and otherwise be acceptable to us. We do not accept cash payments, mailed payments, checks or money orders. You may not make payments with funds from your Account.

Faster Payment Services.

We may make services available that allow you to make faster payments through a customer service representative using a telephone, the internet, or other payment system. We will describe the terms for using these services before you use them. You do not have to use these other payment services, and we may charge you a Fee for using them. If we do, we will tell you the amount of the Fee at the time you request the service. We are not responsible if a payment made using our payment services is rejected or not paid. Even if it is, we may still keep the Fee.

If you give your Account number or other Account information to someone else to make a payment for you, we may provide them limited Account information necessary for the payment and process their payment as if you made it. We may refuse to accept any payment made by someone else for your Account. If we accept a payment made by someone else for your Account, you will be responsible for the payment made even if that payment is rejected or not paid.

Payment Processing.

We may accept and process payments without losing any of our rights. Even if we credit a payment to your Account, we may delay the availability of credit until we confirm that your payment has cleared. We may resubmit and electronically collect returned payments. We may also adjust your Account as necessary to correct errors, to process returned and reversed payments, and to handle similar issues. When you provide an Item as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your Item to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your deposit account or to process the payment as an Item. We will provide additional information about this process on your Statement or other documents we send you before your payment is due. When you provide an Item as payment, it might also be converted into an electronic image and collected and returned electronically. These electronic images may also be converted to substitute checks. We will not be responsible if an Item you provide has physical features that when imaged result in it not being processed as you intended.

How We Apply Your Payments.

We apply your payments to the higher Annual Percentage Rate balances before the lower ones. In all cases, we will apply payments and credits in accordance with applicable law. Available credit created as a result of payments posted to your Account may not be available for up to seven (7) days, or longer if circumstances warrant an additional hold, or if we deem ourselves at risk for any reason.

Items with Restrictive Words, Conditions, or Instructions.

Our acceptance of payments labeled “payment in full” or restrictive words to that or any similar effect, will not constitute an accord and satisfaction nor a waiver of any rights we have to receive a full payment on all balances due.

Credit Balances.

We may reject and return to you any payment that creates a credit balance on your Account. Any credit balance we allow will not be available until we confirm that your payment has cleared. We may reduce the amount of any credit balance by any new amounts billed to your Account. You may contact us as provided on your Statement and request a refund of any available credit balance. If you contact us in writing, we will refund your credit balance within 7 Business Days from our receipt of your written request.

Account Default.

We may consider you in default of your Agreement with us if:

- you do not make any payment when it is due;
 - any payment you make is rejected, not paid, or cannot be processed;
 - you exceed your credit limit;
 - a bankruptcy or other insolvency proceeding is filed by or against you;
 - you die or are legally declared incompetent or incapacitated;
 - we determine that you made a false, incomplete, or misleading statement on any of your Account documentation or you otherwise try to defraud us;
 - you do not comply with any term of this Agreement or any other agreement with us;
- or
- you permanently reside outside the United States.

Remember, paying the Fees charged in connection with a default will not by itself cure the default. In addition, if you are in default, we may take the following actions without notifying you, unless the law says that we must notify you:

- close or suspend your Account;
- lower your credit limit;
- increase your minimum payment;

- demand that you immediately pay the entire balances owing on your Account;
- continue to charge you Interest Charges and Fees as long as your balances remain outstanding; and/or
- pursue any other action against you that the law allows, which includes the filing of a lawsuit against you.

You must pay us all of our collection expenses, attorneys' fees, and court costs unless the law does not allow us to collect these amounts.

Authorized Users.

All correspondence, including credit cards, statements, and notifications will be sent to the name and address on file for the primary cardholder. The primary cardholder is responsible for repaying all balances on this Account. Authorized Users (also referred to as Additional Cardholders) will have the same charging privileges as the primary cardholder but will not be financially responsible. You are liable for Authorized User(s)' use of the Account, including any purchases that are made by others if the Authorized User permitted them to use the Account. As the primary Account holder, you are fully responsible for paying for all purchases made by the Authorized User(s), including any fees, charges, or balances resulting from the purchases. You agree to monitor the Authorized User(s)' purchases.

We provide account information to the credit reporting agencies for the primary cardholder. Authorized users' usage, payment history, etc. may also be reported to the credit reporting agencies. When you tell us to add an Authorized User to your Account, you're confirming that you have a relationship with the person or people whose name(s), email address(es), and date(s) of birth you've told us, that all their information is correct, and that you have their consent to add them. If we determine you've given us fraudulent name(s), email address(es), or date(s) of birth or did not have such consent, we will close the Authorized User's Card or may close this Account without notice. It is your responsibility to notify us if you wish to remove an Authorized User from your Account.

Authorized Users may make purchases using the Card associated with the Account, subject to the Credit Limit. Authorized Users will not receive Statements or have access to manage the Account. Authorized Users are not permitted to request Credit Limit increases, add other Authorized Users, or make changes to the Account. You agree that we may discuss the Account with an Authorized User, although we have no obligation to do so.

To stop an Authorized User or another person you authorized from using your account, you must recover that person's Card and destroy it. You must then notify us immediately by emailing support@appcardperks.com or calling 1-844-966-2773. If you do not recover and destroy their Card, and the Authorized User or another person you authorized continues to use the Account, we have the right to cancel all Cards and establish a new Account for you. However, until you contact us requesting to remove the Authorized User, you continue to be liable for any charges the Authorized User or another person you authorized makes.

Communications.

We and our service providers may contact you from time to time regarding your Account. We may contact you in any manner we choose unless the law says that we cannot. For example, we may:

- contact you by mail, telephone, email, fax, recorded message, or text message;
- contact you using an automated dialing or similar device ("Autodialer");
- contact you at your home and at your place of employment;
- contact you by social media;
- contact you on your mobile telephone, including via the mobile app;
- contact you at any time, including weekends and holidays;
- contact you with any frequency;
- leave prerecorded and other messages on your answering machine/service and with others; and
- identify ourselves, your relationship with us, and our purpose for contacting you even if others might hear or read it.

Our contacts with you about your Account are not unsolicited and might result from information we obtain from you or others. We may monitor or record any conversation or other communication with you. When you give us or we obtain your mobile telephone number, we may contact you at this number using an Autodialer and can also leave prerecorded and other messages. We may do these things whether we contact you or you contact us.

If you ask us to discuss your Account with someone else, you must provide us with documents that we ask for and that are acceptable to us.

Mobile App.

You should check with your mobile service provider about charges for data, text messages, and internet access. When a new version is available or for critical updates, you may need to visit the app store that provides apps for your device.

Your access to your Account in the Mobile App or Web App is based upon our ability to authenticate you. Using the Mobile App or Web App allows you to view your balances, credit limit, and recent transactions, to make payments, and more.

Obtaining your Consumer Reports.

You authorize Bank and its agents, successors and assigns to obtain your consumer report(s) and other information from consumer reporting agencies and/or other third party sources while you maintain an Account with us for the following purposes: (i) extension of credit (ii) servicing, monitoring, collecting or enforcing this Agreement or any other agreement between you and us; (iii) providing your credit data to you; and/or (iv) other related purposes associated with this Agreement. Upon your request, you will be informed whether or not a consumer credit report was ordered, and if it was, you will be given the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished the report.

Furnishing Information to Consumer Reporting Agencies.

You agree that we may furnish information about your Account to consumer reporting agencies. Late payments, missed payments or other defaults on your Account may be reflected in your consumer report. You are hereby notified that a negative credit report reflecting on your credit record may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations.

We may report information about the Account to consumer reporting agencies in any Authorized User's name. This information may appear on their consumer report.

If you believe that we have reported or may report to a credit reporting agency information about you that is inaccurate, please notify us of the specific information that you believe is inaccurate by writing to us at [Insert AppCard Address for FCRA disputes]. Please include your name, your mailing address, your email address, your telephone number and a description of the information you believe is incorrect and why. If available, please include a copy of the consumer report in question.

Your Statement will provide additional information about this process, and we may also separately provide you with additional details after your request. This might include payment information. Termination of your Account will not affect your obligation to pay the Account balance plus any finance and other charges you or your spouse owe under this Agreement. Your obligation to pay the Account balance plus any finance and other charges you owe under this Agreement are subject to all applicable laws and regulations regarding repayment requirements. The Cards you receive remain our property and you must recover and surrender to us all Cards upon request or upon termination of this Agreement. If you use your Card or charges post to your Account after you ask us to close it, we may keep it open or reopen it.

We may close or suspend your Account and your right to obtain credit from us. We may do this at any time and for any reason permitted by law, even if you are not in default on your account with us. A suspension of your Account might be permanent or temporary. If your Account is closed or suspended for any reason, you must stop using your Card. You must also cancel all billing arrangements to the Account. We will not do this for you. If we close or permanently suspend your Account, you must also destroy all Cards. You must still pay us all amounts you owe on the Account, even if they are charged after your Account is closed or suspended.

Lost or Stolen Card.

You will take reasonable steps to prevent the unauthorized use of your Card and Account. If your Card is lost or stolen or if someone else might be using it without your permission, you must tell us at once. You may tell us by calling the telephone number on the back of your Card or on your Statement or by writing us at the address on your Statement. You will not be responsible for charges made to your Account that are found by us to be unauthorized. The Law that Applies to Your Agreement.

The issuer of your Card is TAB Bank. In accepting a AppCard Credit Card, you agree to the following provisions:

(1) This Agreement (including the Card, the Account and services related to the Account) will be interpreted by the laws of the state of Utah. This means that the laws of the state of Utah will govern any dispute arising from or relating to this Agreement. Federal law, including but not limited to the Federal Arbitration Act, will also be used when it applies.

(2) You waive any applicable statute of limitations as the law allows. Otherwise, the applicable statute of limitations period for all provisions and purposes under this Agreement (including the right to collect debt) will be the longer period provided by Utah law or the law in the jurisdiction where you live.

(3) You agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the state of Utah and federal courts in and for Salt Lake City and Salt Lake County, Utah. This means that any dispute, action or proceeding relating to this Agreement will be brought in the Federal District Court of Utah or state court in the county of Salt Lake City, subject to the Arbitration Provision below.

Accordingly, it is important that you read the provisions of this section, the Arbitration Provision below, and the entire Agreement carefully. If any part of this Agreement is found to be unenforceable, the remaining parts will remain in effect.

WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

Unless prohibited by applicable law, by agreeing to this Agreement, you waive your right to have a jury trial to resolve any claim (defined below in the Arbitration Provision) you may have against us, our service providers, our respective affiliates or a related third party. This Waiver of Jury Trial provision does not apply to you if, at the time of entering into this Agreement, you are a member of the armed forces or a dependent of such a member covered by the Federal Military Lending Act.

CLASS ACTION WAIVER

Unless prohibited by applicable law, if you sign this Agreement, you waive your right to ask a court or an arbitrator to allow you to pursue any Claims on a class action basis or in a representative capacity on behalf of the general public, other borrowers or other persons similarly situated. Furthermore, Claims brought by you against us or by us against you may not be joined or consolidated with claims brought by or against someone other than you, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by all parties. For purposes of this Class Action Waiver, the terms “we,” “us” and “our” shall also include TAB Bank and each of its employees, directors, officers, shareholders, governors, managers, members, parent companies, affiliated entities, successors or assignees ; AppCard, Inc., the servicer of your Card; and any third party who is named as a co-defendant with us in a claim asserted by you. In the event of a conflict between this CLASS ACTION WAIVER provision and the ARBITRATION PROVISION, the ARBITRATION PROVISION shall control. This CLASS ACTION WAIVER does not apply to you if, at the time of entering into this Agreement, you are a Covered Borrower under the Military Lending Act.

Notice and Cure; Special Payment

Prior to initiating a Claim (as defined in the Arbitration Provision below), you may send us a written Claim Notice. In order for a Claim Notice to be valid and effective, it must: (a) state your name, address and Account number; (b) be signed by you; (c) describe the basis of your Claim and the amount you would accept to resolve the Claim; (d) state that you are exercising your rights under the “Notice and Cure” paragraph of the Arbitration Provision; and (e) be sent to us by certified mail, return receipt requested, at AppCard, Inc., 88 Pine St, Suite 1110, New York, NY 10005. This is the sole and only method by which you can submit a Claim Notice. Upon receipt of a Claim Notice, we will credit you for the standard cost of a certified letter. You must give us a reasonable opportunity, not less than 30 days, to resolve the Claim. If, and only if, (i) you submit a Claim Notice in accordance with this paragraph on your own behalf (and not on behalf of any other party); (ii) you cooperate with us by promptly providing the information we reasonably request; (iii) we refuse to provide you with the relief you request before an arbitrator is appointed; and (iv) the matter then proceeds to arbitration and the arbitrator subsequently determines that you were entitled to such relief (or greater relief), you will be entitled to a minimum award of at least $7,500 (not including any arbitration fees and attorneys' fees and costs to which you will also be entitled). We encourage you to address all Claims you have in a single Claim Notice and/or a single arbitration. Accordingly, this $7,500 minimum award is a single award that applies to all Claims you have asserted or could have asserted in the arbitration, and multiple awards of $7,500 are not contemplated.

ARBITRATION PROVISION

Arbitration is a process in which persons with a dispute(s): (a) agree to submit their dispute(s) to a neutral third person (an "arbitrator") for a decision; and (b) waive their rights to file a lawsuit in court to resolve their dispute(s). Each party to the dispute(s) has an opportunity to present some evidence to the arbitrator. Pre-arbitration discovery may be limited. Arbitration proceedings are private and less formal than court trials. The arbitrator will issue a final and binding decision resolving the dispute(s), which may be enforced as a court judgment. A court rarely overturns an arbitrator's decision.

THIS ARBITRATION PROVISION APPLIES UNLESS (1) YOU HAVE EXERCISED OR EXERCISE YOUR RIGHT TO REJECT ARBITRATION OR (2) AS OF THE DATE OF THIS AGREEMENT, YOU ARE A MEMBER OF THE ARMED FORCES OR A DEPENDENT OF SUCH MEMBER COVERED BY THE FEDERAL MILITARY LENDING ACT. IF YOU WOULD LIKE MORE INFORMATION ABOUT WHETHER YOU ARE COVERED BY THE MILITARY LENDING ACT, IN WHICH CASE THIS ARBITRATION PROVISION DOES NOT APPLY TO YOU, PLEASE CONTACT US AT 1-844-966-2273.

READ THIS ARBITRATION PROVISION CAREFULLY AS IT WILL HAVE A SUBSTANTIAL IMPACT ON HOW LEGAL CLAIMS YOU AND WE HAVE AGAINST EACH OTHER ARE RESOLVED.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO OPT-OUT OF (NOT BE BOUND BY) THIS ARBITRATION PROVISION AS DESCRIBED BELOW. IF YOU DO NOT DO SO:

- a. YOU ARE WAIVING YOUR RIGHT TO HAVE A JURY OR A COURT, OTHER THAN A SMALL CLAIMS COURT OR SIMILAR COURT OF LIMITED JURISDICTION, RESOLVE ANY CLAIM THAT IS SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION; AND

- b. YOU ARE WAIVING YOUR RIGHT TO SERVE AS A REPRESENTATIVE, AS A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL, OR IN ANY OTHER REPRESENTATIVE CAPACITY, AND/OR TO PARTICIPATE AS A MEMBER OF A CLASS OF CLAIMANTS, IN COURT OR IN ARBITRATION WITH RESPECT TO ANY CLAIM THAT IS SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION.

THEREFORE, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

Interstate Commerce

This Arbitration Provision is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce and shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (“FAA”), 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., and not by any state arbitration law.

Scope

For purposes of this Arbitration Provision, the word “Claim” has the broadest possible meaning and includes, without limitation (a) all federal or state law claims, disputes or controversies, whether preexisting, present or future, arising from or relating directly or indirectly to this Agreement, the relationship between you and us, the information you gave us before entering into this Agreement, including your application, and/or any past agreement or agreements between you and us, any loan or credit product or related product or services obtained from us and any advice, recommendations, solicitations, communications, disclosures, promotions or advertisements concerning the same; (b) all initial claims, counterclaims, cross-claims and third-party claims and claims which arose before the effective date of this Arbitration Provision; (c) all common law claims based upon contract, tort, fraud, or other intentional torts; (d) all claims based upon a violation of any local, state or federal constitution, statute, ordinance or regulation, including without limitation all claims alleging unfair, deceptive or unconscionable trade practices; (e) all claims asserted by us against you, including claims for money damages to collect any sum we claim you owe us; (f) all claims asserted by you individually against us and/or any of our employees, directors, officers, shareholders, governors, managers, members, parent company or affiliated entities, or assignees, or against the servicer of your Card, including AppCard, Inc. (hereinafter collectively referred to as “related third parties”), including claims for money damages, restitution and/or equitable or injunctive relief; (g) claims asserted by you against other persons and entities if you assert a Claim against such other persons and entities in connection with a Claim you assert against us or related third parties; and (h) all data breach or privacy claims arising from or relating directly or indirectly to the disclosure by us or related third parties of any non-public personal information about you. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the word “Claim” does not include any dispute or controversy about the validity, enforceability, coverage or scope of this Arbitration Provision or any part thereof (including, without limitation, the provision titled “Class Action Waiver” set forth below, subparts A and B of the provision titled “Binding Effect; Survival; Severability” set forth below and/or this sentence); all such disputes or controversies are for a court and not an arbitrator to decide. However, any dispute or controversy that concerns the validity or enforceability of the Agreement as a whole is for the arbitrator, not a court, to decide. In addition, this Arbitration Provision will not apply to (1) any individual action brought by you in small claims court or your state’s equivalent court, unless such action is transferred, removed, or appealed to a different court; or (2) any disputes that are the subject of a class action filed in court that is pending as of the effective date of this Arbitration Provision in which you are alleged to be a member of the putative class for as long as such class action is pending.

Class Action Waiver

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Arbitration Provision, if either you or we elect to arbitrate a Claim, neither you nor we will have the right: (a) to participate in a class action, private attorney general action or other representative action in court or in arbitration, either as a class representative or class member, or (b) to join or consolidate Claims with Claims of any other persons. (Provided, however, that the Class Action Waiver does not apply to any lawsuit or administrative proceeding filed against us by a state or federal government agency even when such agency is seeking relief on behalf of a class of borrowers including you. This means that we will not have the right to compel arbitration of any claims brought by such an agency). An award in arbitration shall determine the rights and obligations of the named parties only, and only with respect to the Claim(s) in arbitration, and shall not (i) determine the rights, obligations, or interests of anyone other than a named party, or resolve any Claim of anyone other than a named party; or (ii) make an award for the benefit of, or against, anyone other than a named party. No arbitration administrator or arbitrator shall have the power or authority to waive, modify, or fail to enforce this section, and any attempt to do so, whether by rule, policy, arbitration decision or otherwise, shall be invalid and unenforceable. Any challenge to the validity of this Class Action Waiver shall be determined exclusively by a court and not by the administrator or any arbitrator.

Electing Arbitration

A party may elect arbitration of a Claim by sending the other party written notice by certified mail return receipt requested of their intent to arbitrate and setting forth the subject of the dispute along with the relief requested. Your notice must be sent to AppCard, Inc., 88 Pine St, Suite 1110, New York, NY 10005, and our notice must be sent to the most recent address for you in our files. If a lawsuit concerning the Claim has been filed, such notice can be provided by papers filed in the lawsuit, such as a motion to compel arbitration.

Administrator

Regardless of who demands arbitration, you shall have the right to select either of the following arbitration organizations to administer the arbitration: the American Arbitration Association, 120 Broadway, Floor 21, New York, NY 10271 (1-800-778-7879), <http://www.adr.org>; or JAMS, 8401 N. Central Expressway, Suite 610, Dallas, TX 75225 (1-800-352-5267), <http://jamsadr.com>. However, the parties may agree to a local arbitrator who is an attorney, retired judge, or arbitrator registered and in good standing with a bona fide arbitration association with at least 10 years of experience arbitrating financial or banking disputes and arbitrate pursuant to the arbitrator's rules. If the AAA and JAMS are unable or unwilling to serve as administrator, or the parties are unable to agree upon another administrator, a court with jurisdiction shall determine the administrator or arbitrator. The arbitration hearing will take place at a location reasonably convenient to where you reside.

If you demand arbitration, you must inform us in your demand of the arbitration organization you have selected or whether you desire to select a local arbitrator. If related third parties or we demand arbitration, you must notify us within 20 days in writing by certified mail, return receipt requested, of your decision to select an arbitration organization or your desire to select a local arbitrator. Your notice must be sent to AppCard, Inc., 88 Pine St, Suite 1110, New York, NY 10005. If you fail to notify us, then we have the right to select an arbitration organization. The arbitration will be governed by the rules and procedures of this arbitration organization applicable to individual consumer disputes. You may get a copy of the rules and procedures by contacting the arbitration organization listed above. In an event of a conflict between the provisions of the Arbitration Provision, on the one hand, and any applicable rules of the AAA or JAMS or other administrator used or any other terms of this Agreement, on the other hand, the provisions of this Arbitration Provision shall control. If a party files a lawsuit in court asserting Claim(s) that are subject to arbitration and the other party files a motion to compel arbitration with the court which is granted, it will be the responsibility of the party prosecuting the Claim(s) to select an arbitration administrator in accordance with this paragraph and commence the arbitration proceeding in accordance with the administrator's rules and procedures.

Non-Waiver

Even if all parties have opted to litigate a Claim in court, you or we may elect arbitration with respect to any Claim made by a new party or any Claim later asserted by a party in that or any related or unrelated lawsuit (including a Claim initially asserted on an individual basis but modified to be asserted on a class, representative or multi-party basis). Nothing in that litigation shall constitute a waiver of any rights under this Arbitration Provision. For example, if we file a lawsuit against you in court to recover amounts due under the Agreement, you have the right to request arbitration, but if you do not elect to request arbitration, we reserve and do not waive the right to request arbitration of any Claim (including any counterclaim) you later assert against us in that or any related or unrelated lawsuit. This Arbitration Provision will apply to all Claims, even if the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Claims existed before the effective date of this Arbitration Provision.

Arbitrator and Award

Any arbitrator must be a practicing attorney with ten or more years of experience or a retired judge. The arbitrator will not be bound by judicial rules of procedure or evidence that would apply in a court, nor by state or local laws that relate to arbitration proceedings. The arbitrator will apply the same statutes of limitations and privileges that a court would apply if the matter were pending in court. The arbitrator may decide, with or without a hearing, any motion that is substantially similar to a motion to dismiss for failure to state a claim or a motion for summary judgment. In determining liability or awarding damages or other relief, the arbitrator will follow the applicable substantive law, consistent with the FAA, which would apply if the matter had been brought in court. The arbitrator may award any damages or other relief or remedies that would apply under applicable law to an individual action brought in court, including, without limitation, punitive damages (which shall be governed by the Constitutional standards employed by the courts) and injunctive, equitable and declaratory relief (but only in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by that party's individual claim). No arbitration award involving the parties will have any preclusive effect as to issues or claims in any dispute involving anyone who is not a party to the arbitration, nor will an arbitration award in prior disputes involving other parties have preclusive effect in an arbitration between the parties to this Arbitration Provision.

Fees and Costs

At your written request, we will pay all filing, hearing and/or other fees charged by the administrator and arbitrator to you for Claim(s) asserted by you in an individual arbitration after you have paid an amount equivalent to the fee, if any, for filing such Claim(s) in state or federal court (whichever is less) in the judicial district in which you reside. (If you have already paid a filing fee for asserting the Claim(s) in court, you will not be required to pay that amount again). We will not seek reimbursement of such fees from you even if we prevail in the arbitration. In addition, the administrator may have a procedure whereby you can seek a waiver of fees charged to you by the administrator and arbitrator. We will always pay any fees or expenses that we are required to pay by law or the administrator's rules or that we are required to pay for this Arbitration Provision to be enforced. The arbitrator will have the authority to award fees and costs of attorneys, witnesses and experts to the extent permitted by this Agreement, the administrator's rules or applicable law. With respect to Claim(s) asserted by you in an individual arbitration, we will pay your reasonable attorney, witness and expert fees and costs if and to the extent you prevail, if applicable law requires us to or if we must bear such fees and costs in order for this Arbitration Provision to be enforced. At the timely request of either party, the arbitrator shall write a brief explanation of the grounds for the decision.

Appeal

The arbitrator's award shall be final and binding on all parties, except for any right of appeal provided by the FAA. However, if the amount in controversy exceeds $50,000, and if permitted by the Administrator's rules, you or we can, within 14 days after the entry of the award by the arbitrator, appeal the award to a three-arbitrator panel administered by the Administrator. The panel shall reconsider anew any aspect of the initial award requested by the appealing party. The decision of the panel shall be by majority vote. Reference in this Arbitration Provision to "the arbitrator" shall mean the panel if an appeal of the arbitrator's decision has been taken. The costs of such an appeal will be borne in accordance with the paragraph above titled "Fees and Costs." Any final decision of the appeal is subject to judicial review only as provided under the FAA. A judgment on the award may be entered by any court having jurisdiction.

Binding Effect; Survival; Severability

This Arbitration Provision is binding upon and benefits you, your respective heirs, successors and assigns. The Arbitration Provision is binding upon and benefits us, our successors and assigns, and related third parties. The Arbitration Provision shall survive any bankruptcy to the extent consistent with applicable bankruptcy law. The Arbitration Provision survives any termination, amendment, expiration or performance of this Agreement and any transaction between you and us and continues in full force and effect unless you and we otherwise agree in writing. If any part of this Arbitration Provision is deemed or found to be unenforceable for any reason, the remainder shall be enforceable, except as follows:

- a. The parties to this Arbitration Provision acknowledge that the provision titled “Class Action Waiver” is material and essential to the arbitration of any disputes between the parties and is non-severable from this Arbitration Provision. If the Class Action Waiver is limited, voided or found unenforceable, then the parties' Arbitration Provision (except for this sentence) shall be null and void with respect to such proceeding, subject to the right to appeal the limitation or invalidation of the Class Action Waiver. The parties acknowledge and agree that under no circumstances will a class action be arbitrated.
- b. If a Claim is brought seeking public injunctive relief and a court determines that the restrictions in the provision titled “Class Action Waiver” prohibiting the arbitrator from awarding relief on behalf of third parties are unenforceable with respect to such Claim (and that determination becomes final after all appeals have been exhausted), the Claim for public injunctive relief will be determined in court and any individual Claims seeking monetary relief will be arbitrated. In such a case the parties will request that the court stay the Claim for public injunctive relief until the arbitration award pertaining to individual relief has been entered in court. In no event will a Claim for public injunctive relief be arbitrated.

Opt-Out Process

You may choose to opt out of this Arbitration Provision but only by following the process set forth below. If you do not wish to be subject to this Arbitration Provision, then you must notify us in writing postmarked within sixty (60) calendar days of the date of this Agreement at the following address: AppCard, Inc., 88 Pine St, Suite 1110, New York, NY 10005. Your notice must be sent to us by certified mail, return receipt requested. Upon receipt of an Opt-Out Notice, we will credit you for the standard cost of a certified letter. Your Opt-Out Notice must include your name, address, Social Security number, the date of this Agreement, a statement that you wish to opt out of the Arbitration Provision and must not be sent with any other correspondence. Indicating your desire to opt out of this Arbitration Provision will not affect your other rights or responsibilities under this Agreement and applies only to this Arbitration Provision between you and us. If you fail to opt out and file a complaint in state or federal court instead of first resolving the matter through arbitration, you must immediately and voluntarily dismiss the complaint or TAB Bank or its agent may file a motion to compel arbitration and collect attorneys' fees and any other costs associated with the motion.

To be provided with an oral disclosure of this information, please call toll-free 1-844-966-2273.

Waiver.

We, our agents, assignees, successors, service providers, and respective affiliates will not lose any of our rights if we delay taking any action for any reason or if we do not notify you. For example, we may waive your Interest Charges or Fees without notifying you and without losing our right to charge them in the future. We may always enforce our rights later and may take other actions not listed in this Agreement if the law allows them. You do not have to receive notice from us of any waiver, delay, demand or dishonor. We may proceed against you before proceeding against someone else.

Assignment.

You must pay them and perform all of your obligations to them and not us. If you pay us after you are informed or learn that we have transferred your Account or this Agreement, we can handle your payment in any way we think is reasonable. This includes returning the payment to you or forwarding the payment to the other company or person. We reserve the right to use third party service providers to perform any activity we are permitted or obligated to perform under this Cardholder Agreement, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS: KEEP THIS DOCUMENT FOR FUTURE USE

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A MISTAKE ON YOUR STATEMENT

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

TAB Bank

c/o AppCard, Inc.

88 Pine St, Suite 1110

New York, NY 10005

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and Account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 Business Days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN AFTER WE RECEIVE YOUR LETTER

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.

2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

YOUR RIGHTS IF YOU ARE DISSATISFIED WITH YOUR CREDIT CARD PURCHASES

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To exert this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card Account do not qualify. Your credit card does not offer cash advances, ATM access, or credit card access checks.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at: TAB Bank, c/o AppCard, Inc., 88 Pine St, Suite 1110, New York, NY 10005.

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above.

After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
